*The Camps are designed to improve your child's fundamentals & teach them the different aspects of the game of football. Each camper will receive a free t-shirt and an opportunity to win the hustler of the day award. Station and positional drills along with game situations leading to scrimmages will be used to improve your child's abilities. The Point Boro High School Coaching Staff has a PASSION for the game of football and our unilateral goal is to make your child a better player at the end of each camp session.
